

TUESDAY	THURSDAY	CT Early Learning Standards

5 Welcome back! Preschool and Penguins are “SNOW” much fun! Practice our left vs. right “flipper style”!	7 Ready to make a snowman? We don’t even need snow! Let’s read Sneezzy the Snowman! How would your snowman melt?	SE 48.5 Make transitions and follow basic schedule and routines and rules S.36.2 Manipulate materials and comment on the impact of own actions L.48.15 Make predictions and/or ask questions about the text
12 White Sharing Day: Something white or with white on it.	14 “We are Friends” in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.! How colorful can you make your name?	L.48.19 Recognize some letters especially those in one’s own name L.48.10 Maintain a topic of conversation over the course of several turns SS.48.5 Demonstrate awareness that people share the environment with other people
19 Spending a few days in outer space! If you could take just one thing to the moon, what would you pack?	21 Blast off! Put on your jetpacks and let’s head to the stars!! Let’s write our names on our jet packs! Astronaut Training Camp! Can we make our hearts and bodies strong?	SS 48.8 Demonstrate awareness of a variety of jobs in the community and the work associated with them through conversation or play. SE 48.14 Interact with a variety of children in the program
26 A rectangle has 4 sides! Two are short and two are long! Can you make a rectangle spaceship?	28 Today is Pajama Day!! Wear your warmest jammies to school today and bring your favorite stuffed animal!	C.48.12 Represent things through three-dimensional construction PH.48.12 Name examples of healthy practice including hygiene, nutrition and sleep.

THEMES- Winter, Letter Recognition SHAPE- Rectangle, COLOR- White